SERVICE OF MAN IS SERVICE TO GOD

"THE LIGHT HAS GONE"

Mansukh J. Upadhyaya, founder Secretary and Treasurer of the Human Service Trust UK, departed from this mortal world in the early hours of the morning of Thursday, 15th May 1986. He breathed his last at Northwick Park hospital, Harrow, in the intensive care unit of Johnson Ward. His dedicated wife, Shrimati Saraswatiben had been with him for all the twenty days till his death. Swami Krishnanand Saraswgn. founder of the Human Service Trust movement, had dashed from Gaborone, Botswana, to London on the 10th May. Swamiji was with the great soul, a man of service to the suffering humanity, until the end. Shri Mansukhbhaiji died in a peaceful atmosphere, having fulfilled all his duties.

We should offer prayers in our own personal places of worship at home, in the satsang groups and the local community temples. These prayers bring peace to the departed soul, and will be a source of strength for the members of his family & co-workers.

Praying and seeking solace in these moments of grief,

Yours;

Swami Krishnanand Saraswatiben Upadhyaya M.S. Gheewala
